Experience

Art Director

TracyLocke | April 2016 - present

- Working as an Art Director has refined my skills in multitasking, being able to stay calm and collected in a fast-paced environment.
- Time and time again, I've supplied super fast turn-around for client feedback.
- My role has refined my ability to successfully balance working individually and being part of a team, having the collaboration and mentorship from coworkers and superiors.

Graphic Design Freelancer

2F Creative Agency

- Responsibilities included logo and business card development as well as preparing documents for print.
 - This job taught me about how to manage expectations and coexist with different working styles.
